You can't fake a faker
You can't lie when you're faced with your maker
It will come out every sin every lie you ever told
It will come out

Yeah I know you don't dream of her
You don't dream of her at night
You dream of someone else you don't have You dream of the girl who saved your life all those years ago
The one that made it worthwhile
Yeah I know I saved your life that night
Yeah I know I gave you the one thing you didn't own
I gave you love
Oh I gave you the love
The love you'd been dreaming of

Say goodbye I owe you no closure
I don't owe you anything
Infact it's you that has a debt to pay
But I don't wish to collect anyday

Yeah I know I saved your life that night
Yeah I know I gave you love the one thing you didn't have
