It's all a question of faith
It's all what you want it to be
And should I run from it or embrace it?
is this my destiny?

Am I destined to fall or am I destined to win?
What shall become of me?
It feels like I'm running away from destiny

You said my failures were caused by my attempts to escape to destiny
and the only way I'll find peace is by accepting my destiny

Am I destined to fall or am I destined to win?
What shall become of me?
It feels like I'm running away from destiny
from destiny
I gotta stop running from destiny
I've gotta stop running from destiny
Oh destiny

Am I destined to fall or am I destined to win?
What shall become of me?
It feels like I'm running away from destiny
