Why did you leave?
Why did you leave?

She still cries, it's all she does
She still loves you
She's all alone
Why did you leave her, why did you leave?
Why did you leave her all alone?
Why did you leave her?
Why did you leave?
Why did you leave her all alone?

She clings onto of hope that it'll bring you home
She doesn't know that you've left her you've really gone
She keeps on wishing that you would pick up the phone and call
She's so weary she can't help but feel all alone

Why did you leave?
Why did you leave?
Why did you leave her all alone?
Why did you leave?
Why did you leave her?
Why did you leave? all alone
Why did you leave?
Why did you leave her?
Why did you leave?
Why did you leave?
