It's feb 14th it's valentine's day I wrote a card for you I never gave you with all the words, all the words I couldn't say All the happy couples in the street pass by me invisibly I stand all on my own, all on my own

They all have big red hearts, chocolate and flowers big red hearts, chocolate and flowers but there's no you in sight

Oh it'll pass
Oh it'll pass
Yeah it'll pass soon enough this valentine's without you

Brave the storm tell the world, tell the world
I love you, I love you Let the rain wash all the players out the way
Let the rain wash the plastic hearts away
I love you, I love you

It'll pass
It'll pass, soon enough It'll pass this Valentine's without you It'll pass soon
It'll pass soon
It'll pass
this valentine's without you
