Is cruelty the only language you understand?
You won't let me go from the web you've weaved
You say you don't want me but then you are outside my door
What am I meant to think if you don't speak?
My friends say I got let go I gotta move on but I keep wondering what you want

Why do you keep turning up everytime I try to let you
go?
Is there something inside that knows everytime I'm trying to let go?
Why do you keep turning up everytime I try to let you
go?
Why do you keep turning up everytime I try to let you
go?
You're standing there

Oh is betrayal the only thing you excel at?
Would you not know how to have a happy ever after?
And if you chose her why come round?

Oh did you know that I was trying to let you go?
Does something always tell you when I'm trying to let you go?
How do you know everytime I'm trying to let you go?
You always turn up when I try let go
When I wanna let go
When I'm wanna let go you're always there
How do you know when I'm trying to let go?
How do you know when I wanna let go?
How do you know when I wanna let go?
How do you know when I wanna let go?
How do you know when I wanna let go?
You're always standing there
