The clock is ticking
I've got to make up my mind up eventually Can't let things carry on the way they are
It's not good for me
Oh, I might as well surrender
That's the way you make me feel

There ain't no point in fighting
You get what you want in the end
There ain't no point in resisting
You get what you want in the end
Oh, ain't no point cos the choice ain't mine

You win
You win
You win anyway
You win
You win
You always win anyway

Cos in the end I know
You'll get what you want
It always is
It always is
It always is your way
It always is
It always is
It always end your way

Oh, ain't no point in resisting cos I know
You always get what you want
Ain't no point
Ain't no point
Ain't no point in resisting
You always get what you want
Hook or by crook

You get what you want
You always win
You always win in the end
You always win

You always get what you want
You are the only winner in this life
It's always your way
