One rain drop fallin' down on
Some hilltop all alone it
Finds another and together
They roll on down

One mornin' then another
Discovering one another
Exploring, addin' on
To the love we found

And the river is wide
And our love, it runs deep
Comin' down from above
Again and again

What started so small
Now it's all I can see
Like a river growin' out
Of one drop of rain

One footstep, no hurryin'
And real easy no worryin'
Love's labor slowly turnin'
Into wine

Each day brings your sympathy
Like water rushin' over me
It heals me, and it's as if
You were always mine

And the river is wide
And our love, it runs deep
Comin' down from above
Again and again

What started so small
Now it's all I can see
Like a river growin' out
Of one drop of rain

What started so small
Now it's all I can see

Like a river growin' out
Of one drop of rain
