I see you looking at me I think you need my help Why are you looking at me I think I know

Your life is getting rougher I see it every day You know that life gets tough It makes you harder

[Chorus:]

You got to go down
To believe in yourself, so I really can help you
You got to go down
Everything's gonna be OK
You got to go down
I believe in myself and I know you will help me
Now you know what's real and you're not blinded

I see you coming towards me I will not turn my back I know the pain you're feeling Won't last long

You ask what's out there people You won't believe your eyes Why don't you look around you We will help you

[Chorus]

You got to go down, yea
Ya got to go down, to pick yourself up
Ya gotta go down, believe in yourself, y gotta go down

[Chorus]
