You feel buried, you feel bored
No one takes you seriously when your 24
So shut off your days and turn on your nights
'cause the chance is for the takin' and the takin's right

Oh no, you really haven't lived life yet
Oh no, you really haven't lived life yet
If you ain't got no regrets

What I did last night is none of your concern
You know I feel right, but that's none of your concern

You know you really haven't lived life yet
You know you really haven't lived life yet
If you ain't got no regrets
If you ain't got no regrets

Don't be mistaken for someone who cares
Oh no, I know you wouldn't dare
You're the pasty, the pawn I took
The sacrificial lamb, the spineless book

Oh no, you really haven't lived life yet
Oh no, you really haven't lived life yet
If you ain't got no regrets
If you ain't got no regrets
