I need a hard-headed woman with her head on straight
'Cause my heart's been broken from too long a wait

Well, I hear you calling, and I know your pain
My lips are trembling, driving me insane

For a kind of lovin'
No foolish games
I'm feeling California
But's it's so far away

For your lovin'
Real lovin'
(2X)

I don't need no sugar mama
to pay my bills
I've got twenty thou' just to fill my thrills

But needing and wanting are two seperate
things
The only difference is you can buy all those things

For a real kind of lovin'
No foolish games
I'll move to California
So you're not far away

For your lovin'
Real lovin'
For your lovin'
