This might come as quite a shock
But Ive given it a lot of thought
This thing that's come between us can't be ignored Ive taken all I can
This is where it's gotta end cuz I can't be your friend anymore
And I can't be accused of not being there for you
How many nights have you shown up at my door?
I hope you understand, this wasn't in my plans
But I can't be your friend anymore
And it's killin me to know you without havin a chance to hold you
And all I wanna do is show you how I really feel inside
You can run to me, you can laugh at me, or you can walk right out that door
But I can't be your friend anymore
So baby now it's up to you
Do I win or do I lose?
Will my heart fly or lie broken on the floor?
Well take me as I am cuz I wanna be your man
But I can't be your friend anymore
And it's killin me to know you without havin a chance to
hold you
And all I wanna do is show you how I really feel inside
walk right out that door
But I can't be just friends anymore
We can't be just friends anymore
