[Jeremih]

I apologize I don't recollect your name
But lemme tell you that them heels really complement your frame
Girl lemme get them ooh aahs then I gotta catch my plane
Say ya miss me and ya wishing for some private time girl how could we get that way?

[Wale]

Look, another day another dollar She hate me when I leave cuz when I leave I never call her
That's life shit alright, shit, I could call you right quick But if I call you gone be like "Boo why we haven't skyped yet?" And on Skype bet you say "Le where my flight at?", if I decline
Then you inquire on where I spend my nights at Shit this life gets overwhelming and more then hectic But a woman worth some anger is certainly worth some effort Just look closer my life is quite deceptive Women'll sell they soul just to buy some attention
I need something to hold fuck that passive aggression
And when I'm back from off that road don't ask me no questions... please... fear watchu don't know

[Jeremih]

I apologize I don't recollect your name
But lemme tell you that them heels really complement
your frame
Girl lemme get them "ooh, aahs," then I gotta catch my
plane
Say ya miss me and ya wishing for some private time
girl, how could we get that way?

[Wale]

Don't remember how I met her but I know I won't forget
her
If loving her is wrong then I just know I won't see heaven

She say she from seattle, she twenty and some change

Before I get to [...] I'm sure to make her rain Then I'm back up on my plane chi town O'Hare We spend some time and get some wine have some milds from Harold's
I told her this here's overrated but I love your city baby Gotta get back to the D you know we finally famous Driver drop me off in Dulles I'm headed to some money TSA be laughing all them rubbers in your luggage
I know ima always leave em but I swear I'll always love em Tell her you'll probably find someone but you'll never find another

[Jeremih]

I apologize I don't recollect your name
