Threw caution as far as we could and built a house there surrounded by simple things to make our lives hard

Our knight guarded the door with the precision of a guillotine tried to hold 'em back but it only served to lead

Keep building you'll get there even if you're not supposed to change the more you expand the closer you get to breaking Falling from the sky, guests arrive so drag 'em in and prop 'em up come on baby bear and don't be scared it's gonna be a new suit morning From the sky, guests arrive so drag 'em in and prop 'em up come on little one and get the gun it's gonna be a new suit morning

The walls they start the giving in a thousand hearts stop beating but you'll wake up in a new suit tomorrow

All this open land on top of the best of both worlds was too good to last past a photograph so we stood still and whispered with our legs planted firmly bought the house to see how it burned that smoke turned the walls into windows brought some wine that made us spill our guts to slim down

Multiplying by the minute even if your house can't hold the weight the more you let in, the closer you get to living

With...house...caved...in...nouveau...Noah's ark... set sail...a ship full of beasts...hunts for new home... months pass...hits shore...is this truth or.....
