"A Time To Dance"

We don't look at things the same way some days you don't look at me at all think we could weather this storm together won't be so hard if we fall

So come to me with your hands open trust in me I will be your chance there's always time enough for bleeding there never seems to be time enough to dance no time to dance would you give me, my love a time to dance

This old world is weighin down on you your eyes barely leave the floor rest your head upon my shoulder there's a meanness going on out there and you don't need anymore
