Through this haze
Glimmers little shards
Of what was once to be

The air in here simmers
With the fallout
And the dissipating heat

Here we live in sight of the rainbow
Here we live in sight...

You give it all away
You turn it all to waste

This alleged good life
Seems to vanish
Just as one of us does reach

A bullet
The only honesty
The only entity that will not deceive

Here we live in sight of the rainbow
Here we live in sight...

Here we live in sight of the rainbow
Here we live in sight...

You give it all away
Then turn it to waste...
