We can pass in the pale moonlight we can fall in love we can be as one for a night ain't no need for love

I've been hit by a movin' train I can't seem to get up Ain't no drug can cure this pain been hit by a train called love

Tell by your eyes you can understand tell by your lips you care we can ride as one for a night I feel we're already there

Would you
be my saving grace
would you
be my saving grace

Come in close, let me feel your hair a little too dark, but almost there I close my eyes for see my love remember how she fit like a glove

Just one night is all I need to clean out the wound and let it bleed let it flow my little white nurse just kiss my lips and remove the curse and be my saving grace
