I wish I could feel just a little of nothing instead of losing my mind Like some bad dream relentlessly coming It won't let me sleep at night

I can't believe what you've taken from me or more like you've taken from us any held hope of us being together any last remnant of trust

You can take away so many things the money, the tv, or the car but you can not take away my memories these I will always carry with me you cannot take away these memories

I remember laughin till four in the morning then of lovin till dawn the way the sun lit your crystal blie eyes in mine you could never do wrong watching you sleep and hearing you breathe just laying there holding you tight drinking with Billy while your sister was sleeping making love after a fight

These are the moments I'm gonna be keeping these are the treasures important to me you can have the car and the tv these things mean nothing to me

No matter how far you can run no matter how far you go I'll always carry you right here inside me right here inside me
