Well here we are boy and I'm through dreaming all these colors I've been flying have lost the will to keep me high and I'm not amused...

So I said hey you're no a star so are you through screaming cause all this paranoia's got you hiding in the dark and I can't see you...

Well shine the light and you can come on in can't you see I'm on a mission you can stay if you are wishin but I'm waiting...

see my daddy hit the doorway when I was just a kid said he'd gone to find the sunshine and bring it back for me and I'm waiting
waiting for the sun to shine

Do you see my scars it's dark and they're glowing all these tiny little punctures are a doorway to the sun a doorway to the sun think I'll have another one

I know he's in here
I can feel him lookin for me I hear him laughin like he did like he did when I was young daddy's bringin me the sun
and I'm waiting
