I gave you my heart
You turned around and tore my heart in two
My hopes and dreams were shattered by your lies
All I feel is emptiness inside
Oh, Why!
You had to break the promises you made
I thought I was the only one you loved
Wasn't what I gave you enough?

I'm all alone
Sitting here waiting by the phone
Dreaming of what it would be
Having you here next to me

You're all alone
Baby, just open your eyes
Why can't you see?
That we both feel the same inside

Thinking of you
And all of the possibilities
If only I could see you one more time
I know that I can make it right

Deep in my heart (Deep in my heart)
I'm longing for your arms to hold me tight
Baby, you're the one from the start
Together we would be so right

I'm all alone
Sitting here waiting by the phone
Dreaming of what it would be
Having you here next to me

You're all alone
Baby, just open your eyes
Why can't you see?
That we both feel the same inside

I'm all alone (I'm all alone)
Sitting here waiting by the phone (I need you here with me) Dreaming of what it would be (You know that we we're meant to be)

Having you here next to me (Forever eternity)

You're all alone (Where do we go from here?)
Baby, just open your eyes (Baby, I see those tears)
Why can't you see? (You need to be right here)
That we both feel the same inside

I'm all alone (I'm all alone)
Sitting here waiting by the phone (I need you here with me) Dreaming of what it would be (You know that we we're meant to be)
Having you here next to me (Oh! Baby)

You're all alone (Where do we go from here?)
Baby, just open your eyes (Baby, I see those tears)
Why can't you see? (You need to be right here)
That we both feel the same inside
