Wake me, when the joys of life return Make an overwhelming rejoice, surprize me with the concern When I learned things were not as they seemed You used to kill me with a glare and now you like to talk to me Like friends-oh we'll be friends to the end- or we'll be friends Until I'm not there to here what you say because your opinion has changed you took it all back to show your true face F*ck with me if you want but I am taking as much as you are Hurting me with words cause I can take this as much as you can if I said anything You'd still think less of me If I did anything, would it matter? If I tried hard to see you'll still think less of me If I said anything would it matter? i'm gonna turn you like the ones that turned on you and I hope that it myight sink thru Before you didn't know me, now you wanna show me that I should be alarmed if I don't learn how to shut my mouth up and just what is up with that huh?!! how can you go anywhere but down acting like that I gotta fight back you don't give it up and I don't give it up, so do me a favor and shut your mouth up. Until I'm not there to here what you say F*ck with me if you want but I am taking as much as you are Hurting me with words cause I can take this as much as you can if I said anything You'd still think less of me If I did anything, would it matter? If I tried hard to see you'll still think less of me If I said anything.. Why don't you leave us alone F*ck with me if you want but I am taking as much as you are Hurting me with words but I can't take this I can't take this anymore
