Labia In The Sunlight)

when will you shut your mouth stop all the vibrate birds flying out of a mountain somewhere the snow cools my fever i just have stumps left for fingers wonderin' can you still play guitar?

just like a baby

just like the smoke rings

when will you stop all yours buzzing smow crushing hummingbird

(all day)

somewhere the star burns the universe gold eagle paints in my fingers

(all day)

can of spaghetti diseases hopin that you can still play guitar?
