Stuck in the perpetual motion

Dying against the machine

The whole thing leaves

You a nothing instead of a these

The sun is black and the black halos fly

And your number is backwards again when you try

The sound is so cute when you're 22

When you're 22

Eggs break when you walk on the scramble

You're living against the machine

The whole thing leaves

You a nothing instead of a these

The bone is cracked and the cracked eggshells fly

And your number is backwards again when you drive

The whole thing's removed when you're 22

When you're 22
