Do you want to save your soul?
Take back all the things that they stole?
We won't resurrect the crusade now
'Cause it looks like we've been betrayed
Will someone come,
save us from this storyline of mass destruction
Will they stay when they see what we have done just to be free

Chorus:

Waiting, we're waiting
Waiting, we're waiting
For a superhero
Waiting, we're waiting for a superhero intervention

The boys in charge celebrate
Their cunning game of switch and bait
Looking down at the world they've created
Land of lost and sedated
Will someone come,
Save us from
This storyline of mass destruction
Will they stay,
When they see what we have done
Just to be free

Chorus:

Waiting, we're waiting for a superhero intervention
We're waiting for a superhero intervention
Waiting, we're waiting for a superhero intervention
Waiting for a superhero intervention

I'm waiting for a superhero
Will someone save us from the story line
I'm just standing here waiting for a sign
Will someone come save us from the story line
I'm just standing here waiting for a sign
