Once more...

Come the morning, don't you wake me,
I'll be dreaming that I'm free.
Come the day break, don't you shake me,
send me back to misery.

Cuz I'm dealin' with the devil, ain't no help from above.
I'm stealin' with the devil through this house,
Of broken love.

Taking chances with you baby, I saw something in your eyes,
and though no one else could blame me,
there were signs I should have recognized.

Now I'm dealin' with the devil, with no help from above.
I'm sleepin' with the devil in this house,
of broken love. yeah yeah broken love

If you don't wanna lose my lovin' use it constantly, if it's gonna be lies, suspicious eyes
then baby, oh baby set me free.

When the night falls, and she's leaving,
ooo the moon shines so cold and grey.
Hear my heart beat ,yeah,yeah, hear me weeping
Pain and sorrow's here to stay,

But I begged you baby help me, but you turned your back on me,
You didn't even listen, You should have set me free.
Now I'm leaving with the devil, gonna leave this search for love,
I'm leaving with the devil, leave this house,
Of broken love.
Oh yeah, broken love, yeah,bye bye...Sing it...
