So many years go by
So many fears can fill your eyes
So many fears to lock behind a door

So you drift away
And yet another day
Day goes by
Empty as before

I'll be there
Come the mornin' light
Waitin' there
I'll wait for you

She only needs someone
She only needs some time
She only needs someone
To stay this time
She's waiting for love to come
She waits there on her own
Shes waitin' for someone
To get it right this time

So many day drift by
Too many ways slowly die
How may shadows fade across a wall

Soon the day will come
You may find someone
Only now
Lonely evermore

She's still there
Come the morning light
She's waiting there
She waits for you

She only needs someone
