I feel the rain on my hands are tied and I cannot get up because I'm so far down.
I feel the rain on my...

I cannot bear to put my trust in you.
These tears have built the walls that I've placed around my heart.

I feel the rain on my face,
I know that I am not so far that I cannot move on.
I feel the rain on my...

Now save my life,
save me from this sin.
Cause I always turn back,
I know I always will.
But now I give you my life,
I give you my heart,
in this time when I've never been so far.

I have to trust you,
I have to trust you,
in tearing down the walls that I've built around my heart.
