Sunny days, sunny days
Really really don't start 'till she came
Sunny days won't run away
Really really don't start 'till she came
With a pretty woman, pretty woman
Pretty woa-oh, oh oh oh
A pretty woman, woa-oh
Pretty woman to my name

Well I don't care what she said to me
(I don't care what she said to me)
They can still all live their lives through me
(Live their lives through me, oh yeah)
Well people stay, and people go
But right here I will remain
People ask, and I say no
Because some things never change

Sunny days, sunny days
Really really don't start 'till she came
Sunny days won't run away
Really really don't start 'till she came
With a pretty woman,
Pretty woa-oh, oh oh oh
A pretty woman, woa-oh
Pretty woman to my name

And I remember the days
(buh da ba ba ba..)
And I rememberd to stay right here
Because everytime I look
And try to erase
Well she comes at me
Like a punch in the face

Well I don't care what she said to me
(Said to me)
They can still all live their lives through me
(lives through me, oh yeah)
Well people stay, and people go

People ask, and I say no
I just say

Woah!

Blue skies are lookin' fine
And I've been looking for a dime
Like a hammer to a nail
I'm a rhymers to a rhyme
So like I'm lookin' quite glum
'Cause the summer equals fun
But the snow's still fallin'
So the summer's just begun
But I can handle myself
I need no season for health
I just strap on my UV lotion
Grab my shades off the shelf
Sunny days come, and sunny days go
But a girl like you,
I wanna get to know

And I remember the days
(buh da ba ba ba..)
And try to erase
Like a punch in the face, woa-oh
And I remember this day

Sunny days, sunny days
With a pretty woman, woa-oh
Pretty
