Lipsmacker and your ecstasy's all gone
You don't care about it anyway
Porno hacker and he doesn't like your songs
You don't care about it anyway

I can't get over
You're getting freaky with that clown
I can't get over
I'm so not the one you're bringin' down
This time...yeah

His Honda's tight and his Xbox thumb is numb
You don't care about it anyway
Fake I.D. and his picture is well hung
You don't care about it anyway

I can't get over
You're getting freaky with that clown
I can't get over
I'm so not the one you're bringin' down
This time...yeah

Now I can feel the blood rushing down
Out from my head that litters the ground
Pick up my teeth that splinter the floor
Can't think about your face
Your face anymore

Lipsmacker and your ecstasy's all gone
You don't care about it anyway
Hella dumb but his kind buds turn you on
You don't care about it anyway
You don't care about it anyway
You don't care about it anyway
You don't care about it anyway
You don't care about it anyway
