You lay me down in satin sheets softly

You're movin' slow.

It's gonna be everything just for me

I know how you how you want to love me.

Your love is sweet. I'm going down easy.

But I don't know what I'm doing here anyway. It's not me.

I don't like what I feel. It's so unreal. You better leave.

A. You go I call the stranger is back/black (*1)

But can't you see you're on wrong track?

Tonight I taste the danger of love that knows no promises.

Alive! I know I'm not comin' back.

Bitter is better!

Just stop and walk away. / I Gotta stop an' walk away.
(*1)

Bitter is better!

Your kind of love is not for me.

Bitter is better!

Locked away in your love and sweetness.

Lost the key and I just don't need it/this. (*1). [End of A.]

I'm not the woman you were looking for anyway.

High on a pedestal, lilywhite givin' me diamond rings.

You're just too much for me. I'll loose my sanity. You better leave.

[Short solo.]

[Repeat A and extracts from A.]

Notes :

*1) According to the lyrics of Japanese single it's the second alternative
