Feel it in the rushing wind.

Brushing up against your mind.

Look for a way to go.

Head for the border sign.

You could be gone.

You could be far away.

Soon you must fly free.

And yes...

Somehow you'll find what you've been missing.

There was more to life than visions we had dreamed about.

A. Can you hear it calling you?

Can you?

Can you hear it calling you?

Can you hear it coming through to you?

When you hear it calling you.

It's your freedom. [End of A.]

If you're on your own.

If you have been betrayed.

Stand by the truth you love.

Don't get it mislaid.

You're not alone.

And nothing can hold you down.

Soon you will be free.

And yes...

Somehow you'll find what you've been missing.

There was more to life than anything you dreamed about.

[Repeat A.]

[Guitar solo.]

[Repeat A with low volume
