Out in the rain, walking down this long avenue Out to the crowds in the square, feelings are high everywhere Chorus: But the feeling is gone, and I can't break away (living in Moscow) Out in the cold (so cold) when there's nowhere to stay Look at the girl, gazing through the window Clutching her books, memorising every line Keep your belief at the start, this was the faith in my heart (chorus) (Solo) Where can we go in the suburbs of Moscow Watching the rain beating down empty streets (chorus repeats 3x)	viole caparbo or wedoow on wetoryhoo.com
