

Wilde Kim

"View From A Bridge"

Visit "View From A Bridge" on MotoLyrics.com

A. View from a bridge, can't take anymore.

View from a bridge, can't take anymore. [End of A.]

I guess it all began a year ago, like a cheap love magazine.

You know the kind you read about, and had to laugh at the pages in between.

Now I can't believe that? fool inside me, cos' I just can't face the world I've grown to see.

[Repeat A.]

I saw you kissing her.

I saw you making her.

In the soft sheets in between.

But when you turned around I saw your eyes were fire,

and you crashed out all my dreams.

And like a fool I just stood there and let it go.

I should have fought right back and let my feelings show.

[Repeat A.]

You sure as hell know how to make a fool of me.

Well you cut me down for the things you want, and now it's killing me.

[Deep dark voice]

I'll lay it on the line now.

You're running out of time now.

[Kim]

But then a voice said jump and I just let go and I'm floating out in space.

But then I feel your arms and I turn around to a ghost without a face.

And I just don't know what's fact or fantasy,

'coz when I look below the bridge I see it's me.

[Repeat A several times.]

[Fade to die

Visit Wilde Kim page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.