Why so serious? Why so serious?

You are now listening to the coldest nigga period (coldest nigga period, coldest nigga period)

You are now listening to the coldest nigga period [X2]

[Verse by Tha Joker]

I'm probably somewhere next to God, I'm so fly when I speak

Just look down at my feet you'll see that nothing is beneath

Haven't met one that could compete, still I don't know relaxing

Coldest rapper period, someone get me a Maxi

My buzz is getting massive these haters feeling sour

You niggas artificial like, undying flowers

These motherfuckers cowards

But act like they ain't scary

These rappers got no balls, like broken BlackBerry's

Bitch I feel like an exam, I got all the bitches checkin'

My money got these hoes getting off like an exit

Got your babymomma riding, you can hear the saddle slapping

Hitting corners in that pussy, swear my dick be Cadillacin'

Get me one more drink, in the club straight acting

New Polo shirt, Ralph Lauren straight chappin'

Yeah I see you tote a gun, but I bet that you won't shoot it

If a nigga bug me, I'mma start ship trooping

I'm the coldest ever done it, I am trully

If these haters had a chance to live my life, then they would do it

But the only thing in life that is for certain is a casket

So all I do is smoke, I thing I blew my head gasket

They make shoot a party song, shoot a video or too

Then watch they numbers fall like the wrong jigga moo

So I'm sticking to the code got all the real niggas cheering

I wake up getting blunted call it morning rockateering

And haters never heard, so we just shoot 'em birds
And drop the hardest shit so listen to my terds Please just listen to my words, hear the messages within
Oh no I don't gas them up, it's like my fans are hybrid Never catch my eyelids it's because I grind more That's why you can't see me, li-li-like the ocean floor
Mississippi in the door, feeling like the last hope Tell them why so serious? I know it's 'cause you're broke [Heath Ledger Joker laugh]
