Time changes everything,
Even you and I have changed
The rain the winters bring has made us fade away

I still remember everything,
That old December, the fears, the cold,
I really wonder how you feel
On these nights, all alone

I hope some day you'll see me...
I hope some day you'll spot me in the crowd...
Take my hand and kiss me
I hope some day you'll say my name out loud...

(chorus)
Tell me,
tell me about your feelings,
Tell me about your stories
Look into my eyes and come on closer
And make me immortal with a kiss

Tell me,
tell me about your feelings,
Tell me about your stories
We know it's over, so tell me it's over
and life will be better in spring.

Time changes everything,
But this feeling, it still remains
The sweetness of the lips I kissed
Will always be the same.

I hope some day you'll see me...
I hope some day you'll spot me in the crowd...
Smile and say you miss me
I hope some day you'll say my name out loud...

(chorus)
Tell me,
tell me about your feelings,

Tell me about your stories
Look into my eyes and come on closer
And make me immortal with a kiss

Tell me,
tell me about your feelings,
Tell me about your stories
We know it's over, so tell me it's over
and life will be better in spring.

Tell me,
tell me about your feelings,
Tell me about your stories
Look into my eyes and come on closer
And make me immortal with a kiss

Tell me,
tell me about your feelings,
Tell me about your stories
We know it's over, so tell me it's over
and life will be better in spring.
