if you write down the things that make me cool, it's a short list, i don't wanna talk about my small wrists it's been a while since my last kiss cuz i mean, it's hard to find a nice techie! i should be alternative like becky cuz she's pretty and sexy im just mad because nobody gets me all i wanna do is sit in my room and watch spider-man lose to dr. doom i miss the days before everyone thought i was a stalker i've always been the dorkass jammed inside the locker cuz i thought i was sheena, ya know, a punk rocker and then i grew into wanting to be female flock and everybody hates it! what a shocker! i been hot since grade school soccer when the coach tried to put me on the bench, i shot her no i'm just kidding i'm a fucking lawyers daughter i'm not a badass, i'm not awesome i'm just a little ginger wuss, i'm bubbles, i'm not blossom on the VIP list, i'm the bottom i've been hiding in my closet all summer and autumn watching jimmy neutron and dying of boredom and all my friends hate me cuz i just ignore them to talk to like basedpharoah and fuckswag and slug and shit
and everybody else that i'm in love with
and everybody else that i'm in love with
and everybody else that i'm in love with
and everybody else that i'm in love with
and everybody else that i'm in love with fuck this, everyone in florida's a sham so i went back to hollywood, specifically for cameron and right after i landed at LAX i ran into my ex and he looked a little vexed, i said uh is there a problem?
yes, he said california hates you bitch, why'd you bother?
hey, i just came for the fries with the carne asada and to prove i can go a lot harder than gucci gucci louis louis fendi fendi prada but whatever now i'm in louisiana with my baby james, consider your post flamed and without him you probably wouldn't even know my

so he's one of the hundred i'm in love with along with everybody else that i'm in love with
and everybody else that i'm in love with
and everybody else that i'm in love with
and everybody else that i'm in love with
and everybody else that i'm in love with and everybody else that says they love me i mean, all the shine online is lovely i feel like such a lucky little kid like cud i and if you don't like me, i know that i'm sucky nobody really likes my music, they just kinda wanna fuck me so here ya go, here's your shoutouts honeys hi ramsay christian michael brad noah matt danny and here's to that asshole who said he can't stand me on youtube wearing some dumb slayer band tee have fun dealing with my six-fan family fucker saying i copied oddfuture what the fuck is wrong with you i'm a little girl stop fucking picking on me on the internet im telling
