-What's the matter?
-I just can't seem to make him understand
-Well, did you tell him how you feel?
-I tried that, but it just went in one ear and out the other
-Why don't you show him how you feel?
-Show him?
-Show him. Alright!
I can't imagine
Why you're feeling sad
If you're really trying girl
To give just what you have

You've got that certain kind of man
Who really needs a lot
So tell him what you'll do for him
And show him what you've got

Don't you know that love is watching you
So speak with your heart
It's the kind of love that guilds you through (guilds you through)
And you'll know just what to do
So...

If you really love him
Then make a way to show him what you really feel
If you really need him
Don't hesitate
You got to let him know your love's for real

This feeling's got you burning
Deep within your soul
The things you want to do for him
To somehow let him know

Cause you know that love is watching you
So speak with your heart
It's the kind of love that guilds you through (guilds you through)
And you'll know just what to do
So...

If you really love him
Then make a way to show him what you really feel
If you really need him
Don't hesitate
You got to let him know your love's for real

Girl you've got to let him know
If you love him let it show
And you'll know just what to do
Hey, yeah

If you really love him
Then make a way to show him what you really feel
If you really need him
Don't hesitate
You got to let him know your love's for real
