Now time has passed since we broke up

And I start to see godd thing again

I'll never love another girl

Now time has passed and these facts remain the same

You're the best thing that ever happened to me

I'm sorry but at that moment I could'nt see

I wonder if you have some space for me

Or if I'm bound to sail this lonesome sea

Maybe we could try it once again

Maybe we could try it once again

Only you can take away my pain

Only you can make me smile again

Now with some distance I can see

There's good sides and bad sides to us all

I could'nt stand to see you weak

Now time has passed and I'll give you this call

You're the best that ever happened to me

I'm sorry but at that moment I could'nt see

I wonder if you have some space for me

Or if I'm bound to sail this lonesome sea

Maybe we could try iy once again

Maybe we could try it once again

Only you can take away my pain

Only you can make me smile again
