She's all alone in the corner
We all watched as she sat down
She's waiting on some cowboy to join her
And buy her that first round
Soon she'll be dancing with the devil
Who's trying to make her think he's not
She can't kill the pain with tequila
But she'll give it her best shot

That's why she comes in here to make her past disappear
Forget about what he's done and find the one
Who will love her through the years
But it always ends the same
She'll be alone when she wakes up with tears on her face
She's in the wrong place if she's looking for love

Everyone knows she's hurting
There's no secrets in this small town
She had a good life and was certain
He would never let her down
Now she's clearly lost her direction
No this ain't where she belongs
She's just trying to replace the affection
Of a fool who did her wrong

That's why she comes in here to make her past
disappear
Forget about what he's done and find the one
Who will love her through the years
But it always ends the same
She'll be alone when she wakes up with tears on her
face
She's in the wrong place if she's looking for love

Maybe it would help if she went somewhere else
But she always comes in here to make her past
disappear
Forget about what he's done and find the one
Who will love her through the years

But it always ends the same
She'll be alone when she wakes up with tears on her
face
She's in the wrong place if she's looking for love
If she she's looking for love
