I didn't think I'd ever see you back here in these parts
Did all them big city boys up and break your heart
If you need a shoulder you ain't gotta look too far
Don't you worry I'm right here

I might be talking crazy, might be out of my league
But a sweet simple slow dance is what you need
I got a feelin' baby I could sweep you off your feet
Before you cry another tear

Won't you let a country boy love you
With a love that's strong and sure
Won't you let a country boy love you
Love you like you deserve

I got a sixty seven Chevy with three on the tree
It's just an old rust bucket, gets me A to B
But it's got a bench seat so you can slide up next to me
And I can hold you nice and close

I know a secret little spot that ain't too far
Down by the river past my uncle's farm
Where I can steal a kiss underneath the Texas stars
With Conway on the radio

Won't you let a country boy love you
With a love that's strong and sure
Won't you let a country boy love you
Love you like you deserve

Won't you let a country boy love you
With a love that's strong and sure
Won't you let a country boy love you
Love you like you

Won't you let a country boy love you
With a love that's strong and sure
Won't you let a country boy love you
Love you like you
Love you like you
Love you like you deserve

Yeah, let a country boy love you
