You're poking out your lips, your hands up on your hips
Holding back a kiss 'til I cave in again
You oughta be ashamed for treating me this way
Knowing that I can't say no to nothing I give in

Oh you know just how to get your way
And I don't stand a chance
I try but I can't help myself
I'm falling for your sweet little song and dance

Here comes that little smile innocent like a child
Hiding your wild side that's the game you like to play
There goes my heart again, the one you always win
It oughta be a sin the way you steal it away

Oh you know just how to get your way
And I don't stand a chance
I try but I can't help myself
I'm falling for your sweet little song and dance

I'm just a fool and I can't play it cool
When you do what you do to me
You're lettin' down your hair now you know that ain't fair
I swear it's all I need to see

Oh you know just how to get your way
And I don't stand a chance
I try but I can't help myself
I'm falling for your sweet little song
Your sweet little song and dance

You're poking out your lips, your hands up on your hips
Holding back a kiss
Here comes that little smile innocent like a child
Hiding your wild side
