Copenhagen
I've never seen you look this bright
Just awoken
From the beauty snooze you took last night

Oh, this tingling feeling
To be the blood inside your veins
I've been leaving believing
I could find a better place

And all this time,
You were right here
Right here,

Copenhagen
I've never felt your grip so tight
Care is taken
You'll catch me if I slip, I'll be alright

Oh, this wondrous feeling
To be walking your empty streets
I've been leaving believing
I'd find better streets than these

But all this time,
You were right here
Right here,

Outside my window
At my feet
In my heart
In the air I breathe
[repeat]

Copenhagen,
