Stains, look at all these stains
Look at it running down the walls into the drain
Shame, I don't feel no shame
I don't feel nothing but relief to be alone

It's a cold heart that did what I did
Should be so hard to live with it
Should be sorry sorry sorry sorry
But I feel no regret
For these stains

Oh no no no

Lies, listen to these lies
Listen to them jumping from my tongue into your life

It's a cold heart that did what I did
Should be so hard to live with it
Should be sorry sorry sorry sorry
But I feel no regret
For these stains (x2)

Ohh stains
