Need to find a way
Find another time
There's nothing I could say
To give her peace of mind
Need to find the words
Need to find a way
But only those
With nothing to say
Can look into her eyes
And not turn away
For only those
Have nothing to say

I can see them now
I can find the words
But I turn away
With nothing to say
Come home again
Still I'm lost here
Nothing stays the same

She has my love
She needs something more
And the time is mine
Nothing to say
Can't hide this feeling

Running through my mind
Still I can't believe

I'm here
I got this feeling now
It'll never stay long
It'll never stay long
I'm here
No matter how I try
I can never forget
The reasons why

It's that fear again
It's coming like a train
Every time I believe

It starts bearing down
Leaves nothing to say
There's nothing to tell that I don't know
That hurt the feeling of love and
I don't know why I feel
You took it all away

Come closer again

Come running from my mind
That's the way it's always been

I'm here
I've got that feeling now
But it'll never stay long
It'll never stay long
I'm here
No matter how hard I try
I can never forget
The reasons why

You say you got love
Got a love to set you free
I can feel it, darling
It runs all over me
I got a smile that says I'm feeling good
You know I'm feeling good
You know I'm feeling good

I'm here
I got this feeling now
But it'll never stay long
It'll never stay long
I'm here
No matter how hard I try
I can never forget
The reasons why

I'm here
I got this feeling now
But it'll never stay long
It'll never stay long
I'm here
No matter how hard I try
I can never forget
The reasons why

Come home again
Still I'm lost here
Nothing stays the same

Can't hide this feeling
Come running through my mind
Still I couldn't believe

And I could be gone another day
I could turn round and then walk away
I don't have to go
You can make me stay
There's nothing to say that you don't know
That hurt my feelings, loving
I don't know why it stays
You took it all away
And I know that I am leaving
I know the place you were heading
Ain't there no more
I took it all away
Come into me
Come to me come to me

Yes I understand
Come closer to me

Go running from my mind
That's the way it's always been
Touch the feeling
Can't stop here
That's the way it's always been
Always stays the same
I'm here
I got this feeling now
But it'll never stay long
It'll never stay long
I'm here
No matter how I try
I can never forget
Forget

Coming round again
Gonna break apart

Can't hide this feeling
Running through my mind
Still I can't believe
Come in to me
Come closer baby come
Yes I understand
Come closer
Come into me
Go running from my mind
Nothing stays the same

It's hard again
Your lips apart
