There are places I don't remember
There are times and days, they mean nothin' to me
I've been looking through some of them old pictures
They don't serve to jog my memory

I'm not wakin' in the morning, starin' at the walls these days
I'm not getting out the boxes, spread out all over the floor
I've been looking through some of them old pictures
Those faces they mean nothin' to me no more

You travel light
You travel light
Everythin' I've done
You say, you can justify, you travel light

I can't pick them out, I can't put them in these sad old bags
Some things you have to lose along the way Times are hard, I'll only pick them out, wish I was going back
Times are good, you'll be glad you ran away

You travel light
You travel light
Everythin' I've done
You say, you can justify, you travel light

Do you remember, how much you loved me?
You say, you have no room in that thick old hair Well, it comes with the hurt and the guilt, and the memories
If I had to take them with me I would never get from my bed

There's a crack in the roof where the rain pours through
That's the place you always decide to sit Yeah, I know, I'm there for hours, the water running down my face
Do you really think you keep it all that well hid?

No, but I travel light
You don't travel light
Everythin' I've done
It's just a lie, you don't travel light

I'm travelling light
No, you don't travel light
I travel light
No, no, you don't travel light
I'm travelling light
You don't travel light
