"Good Way Of Life"

You have a good way of life
You are truly just all that you do
You never even think of how it is or how it goes
Loving every second of the fact that you just know

You have a good way of life
You don't listen to anything they say
Sharing everything with everybody else
Spreading so much love around from deep within yourself

Will you drop your weapons and just hurry off somewhere?
I need to be someone for a while other than this fool you made me
I get to concentrate on things I should have done
I think of everything we build on greed and pretend perceptions

You have a good way of life
You are truly just all that you do
You never even think of how it is or how it goes
Loving every second of the fact that you just know

You have a good way of life
You don't listen to anything they say
Sharing everything with everybody else
Spreading so much love around from deep within

Would you make my day and just let yourself away?
Come and bring love anytime but leave the past 20 years behind
We need to look forward and listen to ourselves And not playing the melody obviously made for someone else

You have a good way of life
You are truly just all that you do
You never even think of why it is or how it goes
Loving every second of the fact that you just know

You have a good way of life
You don't listen to anything they say
Sharing everything with everybody else
Spreading so much love around from deep within

Before it used to be so easy to control
But now I just wait for something to fade some more
The no meaning whatsoever will be followed up though I might just turn it in to something to hold me up
