I don't hear no-one thats sounding good
Call me the wolf, I got a little red riding hood
When we in the club, women try to push and try to look
If the drink don't do it, than I bet them f-cking diamonds would
I'm off the rails, n-gga I'm a head case
Tryna take it to another level like a stair case
Traded in a thousand times to be a millionaire mate
I take off and land in a very private air space

Okay, I'm crazy and insane, crazy and deranged
I'm so far ahead they tryna chase me in a train Got them other rappers feeling lazy and ashamed
You know you're doing something right when Jay-Z knows your name
And I aint bothered by the fame but I'm addicted to this lifestyle
Girls so starstruck she write her number twice down
All I see is numbers I don't f-cking waste time n-gga
All I do is numbers call me 789!
