"The Way I Love You"
When you're in love
Why does it seem
The people always have something to say
But I have enough living my dream
And no one gonna cant take that from me
They can say what they wanna say
They don't see you like I do
They think its crazy to feel this way
But I don't mind it's just a waste of time
They can't change the way I love you
You be the one my whole life through
They're nothing they can say or do
To change the way I love you
Time after time
Again and again
Telling me the way it should be
And sometimes it seems
That even my friend
Just don't want to see me happy
Let them say what they wanna say
They don't see you like I do
They think its crazy to feel this way
But I don't mind it's just a waste of time
They can't change the way I love you
You be the one my whole life through
They're nothing they can say or do
To change the way I love you

They can't change the way I love you
You be the one my whole life through
They're nothing they can say or do
To change the way I love you
