Come rain, come rain or shine
Everything's gonna be just fine
The day may seem much too long
But I'm here, all the time
You know it won't be easy
This promise, I promise to you
No matter what we weather
We'll always be fine

If nothing is forever
I'll be here whatever
Find no one stays together
For worse or for better
With you I know we can make it through
With help from Heaven above, it's true
If no one stay together, I'll be there
For worse or for better
ah ah ah

They say people will come and go
Tell me something I don't know
Best friends don't listen to that
You go away and they welcome you back
We don't always see eye to eye
But I will trust ya still the day I die
You can't have the sunshine
With a few days of rain

If nothing is forever
I'll be here whatever
Find no one stays together
For worse or for better
With you I know we can make it through
With help from heaven above, It's true
If no one stays together, I'll be there
For worse or better

Find when we look back on this someday
We're gonna remember
We're in it to stay
If nothing is forever

If no one stays together
For worse or better

If nothing is forever
I'll be here whatever
Find no one to stay together
For worse or for better
With you I know we can make it though
With help from heaven above, it's true
If no one stays together, I'll be there
For worse or for better
