"Into Your Presence"

You are Jesus who died for my sins.
You are the door and I will enter in.
You are Jesus who rose from the dead.
You tore the veil and I will enter in.

[Chorus:]

So I come, I run into Your presence.
I'm bowing down before You, Jesus.
I come, I run into Your presence, oh God.
I come to You.

You are Spirit who's drawing me ever closer to eternity.
You hovered over the waters of the sea.
Now You're breathing life into me!

[Chorus:]

So I come, I run into Your presence.
I'm bowing down before You, Jesus.
I come, I run into Your presence, oh God.
I come

I come, I run into Your presence.
I'm bowing down before You, Jesus.
I come, I run into Your presence, oh God.
I come

Whoa, whoa, whoa, whoa,
Sing, whoa, whoa, whoa, whoa,

[Chorus:]

So I come, I run into Your presence.
I'm bowing down before You, Jesus.
I come, I run into Your presence, oh God.
I come to You
Only you
To You
