

Holy Blood

"I Flow Towards The Fate"

Northern wind nor cold rain
Will stop me
Shield and sword, helmet
Belt and armor
Fire in heart
I am ready for battle.

I flow towards the fate
Jesus, give power to me
I am ready to rush into the fight
To struggle with the Satan and conquer.

The Sea's abyss
Is raging around
And wants to consume me
Underwater reefs and rocks surround me
But they will not stop me.

My God, give tail wind
For I have time
To fight with evil
At sunrise
And then darkness will fall
In the lake of fire.
